Putnam Ag. Alumni Set Dinner Meet For Jan. 4

The Putnam County Ag Alumni will meet Tuesday, January 4th at the Countryside Inn near Hollandburg. This meeting will be "Ladies Night" with a smorgasbord dinner starting at 7:00 p. m.

Dr. Eric Osterle of the Purdue Ag. Ec. Department will present the program "Supermarkets and What They do for the Consumer." Professor Osterle has done extensive research and educational work on consumer marketing and consumer buying patterns as they affect agricultural production and processing.

A native of Pennsylvania, Osterle graduated from Cornell University in 1947 and later earned a Masters and Doctors degrees from Purdue.

Professor Osterle is known throughout the state for his work with agricultural marketing at the consumer level. This new approach to problems of agriculture opens a new vista of research. Osterle is a leader in this new field.

All Purdue Ag Alumni are invited to attend. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Minh's Reply

TOKYO UPI — President Ho Chi Minh of Communist North Viet Nam, in a letter to Pope Paul VI thanking the pontiff for his interest in peace but belittling U. S. peace efforts:

"The U. S. government must completely and unconditionally end its bombings and acts of aggression against the DRV North Viet Nam, stop its aggression in South Viet Nam and let the Vietnamese people settle their internal affairs themselves."

Cong Execute, Mutilate 11

SAIGON UPI — A battalion of North Vietnamese regulars, outnumbering their victims 12 to 1, "executed and mutilated" three American and eight Vietnamese prisoners after a recent battle, a U. S. military spokesman revealed today.

The disclosure of new Communist atrocities came as U. S. planes kept away from North Viet Nam for the sixth straight day and American diplomats were in foreign capitals making new Viet Nam peace moves.

The 11 slain soldiers were part of a mixed Vietnamese-American patrol which on Dec. 16 was hunting for the North Vietnamese army's 18th Regiment near the U. S. Special Forces camp at Ba To, about 310 miles north of Saigon.

They were attacked by an estimated 300 regulars from the North and their position overrun within an hour by heavy mortar and small arms fire.

Thirteen survivors from the patrol made it back to Ba To during the four days which followed. They led search parties back to the battlefield and found their comrades buried in shallow graves.

"They had been shot many times in the face," the U. S. spokesman said today. "They had powder burns on their faces. One man's head was chopped open with a sharp instrument."

"Identification was difficult because of the mutilation they had suffered."

Holiday Traffic May Kill 440

CHICAGO UPI — The National Safety Council estimated between 360 and 440 persons would die in traffic accidents during New Year's weekend. The holiday period runs from 6 p. m. local time today to midnight Sunday. The council also estimated between 17,000 and 21,000 persons would suffer disabling injuries in traffic accidents during the period.

The highest New Year's traffic death toll on record was 474 set during the 1965 holiday. The record for all holidays is 721 traffic deaths counted during last weekend's Christmas holiday.

Smith Warns Of Bloodshed

SALISBURY, Rhodesia UPI — Bloodshed could result from British "bungling" of the Rhodesian crisis, rebel Premier Ian Smith warned Wednesday.

Smith also predicted "chaotic" conditions in neighboring Zambia, which has been affected by British economic sanctions imposed against Rhodesia in an attempt to topple the all white rebel government.

Zambia normally gets its oil through Rhodesia, but this supply was cut off when Britain imposed an oil embargo on the breakaway colony following its Unilateral Declaration of Independence.

Rationing has been ordered both in Rhodesia and Zambia, but Smith said the British sanctions were hurting Zambia more. He also charged that Britons were misled into believing that Rhodesia was responsible for Zambia's oil shortage.

"The British government's bungling over the Rhodesian issue could be the direct cause of the shedding of blood and loss of life," he said.

Despite the oil embargo there was no noticeable decrease in traffic in Salisbury, but bicycle dealers reported a heavy demand.

In another development Lord Graham, the Rhodesian Agricultural minister, answered a special committee to seek top prices for the Rhodesian tobacco crop. Britons have been forbidden to import Rhodesian tobacco since the sanctions went into effect.

Siamese Twin Dies

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Lisa Marie Mantonya, smaller of the Siamese twins born Christmas Day to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mantonya, died early today following emergency intestinal surgery.

Peritonitis was listed as the cause of death. Cedars of Lebanon Hospital said doctors operated on the girl for about two hours Wednesday night.

Twin sister Sheila Norine remained in good condition, attendants said.

The sisters were born in Holy Cross Hospital. Hours after birth, they were taken to Cedars of Lebanon, where a team of surgeons separated them. They were joined face-to-face at the abdomen.

Storm Blamed For 10 Deaths

LOS ANGELES UPI — A vicious storm spawned in the Pacific Northwest battered southern California Wednesday causing at least 10 traffic deaths and leaving floods and mudslides in its wake as it tapered off today.

Law enforcement officers rescued at least 140 persons, mostly youngsters, stranded in mountain areas by flood and mud. More than 1,000 homes were at times isolated as flooding reached the worst point in 20 years in some areas.

Mail delivery in parts of the Encino area were halted for the first time in history because of flooding, according to postal authorities.

Hundreds of traffic accidents were reported on surface streets and the ribbon like freeways that criss-cross metropolitan Los Angeles.

Gen. Moran Dies

LIMA, Peru UPI — Maj. Gen. Manuel Moran, a former Venezuelan minister of war who lived most of his life in Peru, died Thursday at the age of 73.

ROME UPI — U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Arthur J. Goldberg said today he promised Pope Paul VI the United States would make every effort to find an "honorable and lasting peace" in Viet Nam.

Goldberg, who flew to Rome Wednesday night for a top-secret meeting with the pontiff at President Johnson's request, praised the Pope for his role in arranging the 30-hour Christmas truce in war-torn Viet Nam.

He said the President wanted to "thank the Holy Father for the effective part he played in the Christmas truce and to indicate our gratitude and that of all the world for his continual efforts for peace."

Pope Paul received the former Supreme Court Justice in his private apartments in the Vatican.

Asked whether the 68-year-old pontiff had given him a message for Johnson, Goldberg told UPI: "The Pope of course will have to speak for himself."

The two men talked for one hour and Goldberg said "We had an extensive review of the entire range of Viet Nam problems and outlined the many steps the United States had taken to get the Viet Nam dispute off the battlefield and to the conference table."

Describing the leader of the world's Roman Catholics as "a voice of peace in the world," Goldberg said the United States "places the greatest store in the Holy Father's role in preaching the message of peace."

Viet Editor Is Shot To Death

SAIGON UPI — A respected Saigon editor who defied the Viet Cong in print was shot to death today in front of his home.

Police identified the journalist as Vu Nhat Huy, the editor-in-chief of Viet Nam's second largest newspaper, "Chinh Luan" Right Reason.

Huy was one of many Vietnamese newsmen who a few months ago received letters from the Viet Cong threatening them with death if they did not moderate their editorial policies to suit the Communist.

Chinh Luan was the only newspaper that printed the letter, along with a message of defiance to the Viet Cong.

Huy drove home from Chinh Luan at noon today for lunch with his wife and five children. He was shot seven times by two men who were waiting for him in front of the house.

Chinh Luan is regarded as one of Viet Nam's most responsible newspapers, and Huy was one of the nation's most respected editors.

He returned to Viet Nam three years ago from Geneva, Switzerland, where he had earned a master's degree in political economy.

No Polio Cases

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Indiana entered the final week of 1965 without any polio cases, the State Board of Health reported today.

Nine cases had been reported in the comparable time last year, officials said.

By United Press International

While the world waited and hoped, ranking U.S. diplomats spread through Europe and Asia today in a massive new peace initiative to end war in Viet Nam.

Against the backdrop of a six-day pause in U.S. bombing raids on North Viet Nam, American officials in Rome, Warsaw and Moscow were ready to sound out any additional peace channels.

Shrouded in secrecy Wednesday, U.S. Ambassador-at-large Averell Harriman conferred with the Polish foreign minister in Warsaw on Viet Nam, while United Nations Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg met with Pope Paul VI in Rome, thanking the pontiff for his "continuing efforts" for a Vietnamese settlement. And in Moscow U.S. Ambassador to Russia Foy D. Kohler met for an hour with Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny, presumably to discuss Viet Nam. In addition, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was in Manila fresh from talks with Japanese officials on Viet Nam.

Although President Johnson remained silent on the developments, there were reports from Washington today that Harriman, a veteran diplomatic trouble-shooter, would fly from Warsaw to the Hungarian capital of Budapest—a potential intermediary between Hanoi and the United States.

A damper on the Pope's appeal, however, came from the key man to any settlement to the Viet Nam conflict—President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam.

In a letter to the pontiff broadcast by the North Vietnamese news agency in Hanoi, Ho charged the United States with "scheming" to spread the Vietnamese war to Cambodia and Laos. Repeating previous Communist conditions for a peace settlement, Ho said "aggression by the American imperialists against Viet Nam is the deep origin and direct cause of the present war."

Communist peace demands include an end to U.S. air raids against North Viet Nam, complete withdrawal of American troops from South Viet Nam and a return to the accords of the 1954 Geneva agreement.

Radio Moscow also joined in the attack today on U.S. peace efforts. An English-language broadcast beamed at North America charged that American offers to negotiate a peace in Viet Nam were nothing but "smokescreen . . . designed to allay world indignation over this war of naked aggression."

Christmas Tree Collection Set

Employees of the City Street Department will collect and haul away Christmas trees next week for local residents.

Clyde Miller, Street Commissioner, said today that collections will be made on the east side of the city on Monday and Tuesday.

Collections on the west are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday.

There will be only one time around, Miller stated, and citizens are asked to have their trees ready to be hauled away.

Closed Saturday

The Greencastle Postoffice will be closed Saturday, New Year's Day. There will be no city or rural delivery. Collections and dispatches will be made on holiday schedule.

Most Prosperous Year For Indiana Asserts Rock

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Lt. Governor Robert Rock said Wednesday the year 1965 goes into the books as the most prosperous in Indiana history but added that nearly 34,000 new jobs must be found next year.

He also said in his year-end report that personal income will probably increase at least six per cent in 1966 and unemployment should continue at a rate of less than three per cent.

Further more, he said the reorganized Indiana Department of Commerce, which he heads, has tripled the state's efforts to bring new industries and payrolls to Indiana cities and towns.

Rock described 1965 as a "solid year of economic progress when jobs and personal income broke all previous ceilings for the state."

He said a record number of Hoosiers, 1,634,000, worked in non-farm employment and personal income soared to $13.7 billion.

Indiana also has an "astronomical" backlog of new industrial facilities planned.

"On the basis of population, few other states in 1965 equalled Indiana's rate of building new industrial facilities," he said.

"The magnitude of this increased expansion can be seen in the fact that we begin 1966 with an astronomical backlog of $1.9 billion is announced but not yet completed construction."

He said this was an increase of 18 per cent in one year and "almost double some figures quoted as the nation's average gain."

Rock also said a new program initiated by the Department, the "self-help" industrial loan revolving funds, has already been instrumental in creating 1,000 new jobs since it became operative only six months ago.

But he added thousands of other new jobs must be found during 1966.

Harriman May Go To Budapest

WARSAW UPI — Roving U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman was expected to leave Warsaw today on the next step of his secrecy-shrouded quest for peace in Viet Nam.

A presidential U.S. Air Force jetliner with crew and a relief crew stood by at Warsaw's Okecie Airport, but neither Harriman's expected departure time nor his destination were known.

Sources indicated he might go to Budapest.

Harriman, a veteran diplomatic troubleshooter acting as a special envoy for President Johnson, flew into Warsaw without advance notice Wednesday and conferred for an hour with Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki of Poland.

Communist Poland, one of the three members of the International Control Commission (ICC) on Indochina, has been reported anxious to act as mediator in efforts to end the war in Viet Nam. Canada and India are the other members of the ICC.

A brief official communique said Harriman at Johnson's request relayed to Rapacki the U.S. position on the Vietnamese war. But it gave no details.

Harriman was accompanied to Warsaw by two Far Eastern specialists for the U.S. State Department — David Dean and Christopher Squire. He was greeted by U.S. Ambassador John A. Gronowski, who apparently was taken by surprise by Harriman's arrival. Gronowski broke off an official trip to Poznan and rushed back almost 200 miles to be on hand.

Warsaw is the site of the only known official contact between the United States and Red China but, as far as was known, Chinese Ambassador Wang Kuo-Chan was in Peking. Wang returned home for a vacation shortly after the last periodic meeting between U.S. and Chinese representatives on Dec. 15.

The Driver Is Responsible

The National Safety Council predicts that 360 to 440 persons will lose their lives in traffic accidents across the nation during the long New Year's holiday weekend.

This is indeed a grim prediction especially after the tragic Christmas holiday weekend during which 721 perished in traffic mishaps over the United States.

Indiana had 26 traffic deaths last weekend and the total for the year has now passed all previous records.

How can this slaughter on the highways be reduced? Law enforcement officers cannot do it alone. There must be cooperation by the drivers of motor vehicles.

Many fatalities have resulted from drivers of autos and trucks taking needless chances. One example is at railroad crossings and another in attempting to pass when the distance is not adequate with other vehicles approaching.

There is no doubt that excessive speed, driving at night, and too many drinks cause a large percentage of these highway tragedies.

Simply, it boils down to this, the responsibility is up to the driver of a car or truck. He should be thinking about his own life, those of possible passengers and the other fellow.

It is said "coming events cast their shadow before them" and last weekend's traffic carnage should be a warning to each and every driver in traffic.

THE NEW YEAR

Indiana Traffic Toll Hits 1,489

A death in a one-car accident early today in Grant County raised Indiana's 1965 highway fatality toll closer to the 1,500 mark — a milestone safety officials fear may be reached.

The toll, already the highest on record for a single year, reached 1,489 compared with 1,387 a year ago. The final figure for last year, including persons who died this year as the result of 1964 wrecks, was 1,411.

Frederick A. Riddell, 17, Sims, was killed shortly after midnight when the car in which he was riding went out of control on a Grant County road near Swayzee and struck a tree. Four other occupants of the car were injured, one critically.

Sees Bloodless Rhodesian Coup

NAIROBI, Kenya UPI — Bishop James Pike of California, who said he had been "forcibly ejected" from Rhodesia, told a news conference today he believes there will soon be a bloodless coup in Rhodesia.

Bishop Pike came here early today from Salisbury where he was declared a prohibited migrant shortly after his arrival from Israel and escorted to a plane.

He told the news conference the coup probably would be planned in the Salisbury Businessman's Club. He said the effect of sanctions on Rhodesia already was greater than he had expected from reading the outside press.

Pike said he was surprised how the decline of the financial pattern and the loss of income was affecting the life of Rhodesia.

Mild Indiana Winter Possible

By United Press International

Weather experts who predicted a mild winter for Indiana just might be on target.

True, it's just the start of the wintry season, but the Hoosier state was engulfed in an unseasonably mild weather front today and little change was expected at least through Saturday.

That's in keeping with Wednesday's five-day forecast calling for temperatures up to 16 degrees above normal.

Near-record highs were possible, with afternoon readings in the central and southern portions climbing into the 60s and overnight lows generally in the 40s and low 50s.

The weatherman said there was a "chance" of little rain upstate Friday, but no additional precipitation was anticipated.

A Local TEENAGER'S VIEW

By Janet Staub

As the half-awake high school basketball fans trundled up the booster bus steps, the cry was: "all the way, all the way, Cubs going all the way." The cry went out as the booster bus left at 8:30 on Wednesday to go to the Huntington Tournament.

The booster bus for those of you who may be confused by the term is a school bus hired by the students to go to out of town games. With each student paying a small fee all bus and driver expense is paid for. The booster buses are usually very noisy going to the games, but usually calm down after it unless the boosters' team won and then it may be a little hard to hear yourself think.

On the way to the tournament as the buses were followed by a car which seemed to be headed the same way it was discovered it was the Sports Editor of The Daily Banner. The reason he was following the buses wasn't because he was worried that they would get lost but to insure his own map reading skills by following the buses.

The games were enjoyed by all the Greencastle fans and parts by the other schools too. The vital scores and box scores may of course be found on the sports page.

On the return trip many of the buses were quoted as saying, "Wow maybe Greencastle will be in first place in the county next time standings come out, if that guy with the magic board will only let us work it."

Paul R. Alward Funeral Monday

Paul Russell Alward, 60, 1206 W. Market Street, Crawfordsville, died unexpectedly Thursday morning at 3:30 at his home.

Mr. Alward, a former teacher in the Putnam County Schools, was the father of Paul H. Alward of Greencastle. He was born Nov. 2, 1905, at Wallace, Ind. He was a member of the Methodist Church of West Lafayette, and he had lived in Crawfordsville for the past six years. He was vice-president of the Carpenters District Council of Central and Western Indiana, secretary and treasurer and trustee of Welfare Fund which is a part of United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. Besides teaching in the Putnam County Schools, he also taught in the Ogleshorpe Schools at Atlanta, Georgia.

Survivors are his wife, Betty; the son, Paul of Greencastle; two grandchildren, Linda and Paula; a sister, Mrs. Charles Isbell of Elkhart; a step-mother, Mrs. Charlotte S. Alward of Kingman, one aunt and one uncle.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bright Funeral Home in Crawfordsville in charge of the Rev. Ralph Moore Jones. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning Sunday noon.

The Lighter Side

by Dick West

WASHINGTON UPI — The old calendar on the wall tells us that "10 most" time is here again. Time to pick the 10 most, best and biggest this-and-that of 1965.

One of the traditional year-end rankings is the 10 biggest news stories of the past 12 months. It is fairly easy to compile, being mainly an exercise in editorial hindsight.

I gave myself a more challenging assignment. I went among some of my colleagues and asked them to submit nominations for the 10 biggest news stories of the next 12 months.

The entries have now been tabulated and the list of stories to watch for in 1966 is presented below:

1. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, on a goodwill visit to Japan, stops to shake hands with a group of ricksha drivers. On the spur of the moment, he invites one of them to visit the United States.

The driver eventually comes to Washington and, with a great splash of publicity, is given a taxicab to take back to Japan.

2. President Johnson announces that, due to the press of other duties, Vice President Humphrey will be unable to make any more goodwill trips.

3. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon sets out on a 365-day speaking tour that will take him to every city and town in the United States. Nixon denies the trip has any political implications. He explains that he "just likes to travel."

4. A newspaper publishes an exclusive report that President Johnson will support Democratic candidates in 1966 congressional elections. The White House declines comment.

5. President Johnson urges election of all Republican candidates. The White House denies his anger over previous news "leak" is responsible.

6. Vice President Humphrey announces he will undergo surgery for removal of gall stones.

7. President Johnson announces he will undergo surgery to have gall stones previously removed put back in.

8. Soviet Union invites Mao-tse Tung to take guest ride in Vostok 26 spaceship as goodwill gesture to smooth over Sino-Soviet differences.

9. Soviet Union reveals that Vostok 26, put into orbit with Mao-tse Tung aboard, will make record-setting endurance flight lasting nine years.

10. Entire world is destroyed in history's first nuclear battle. Secretary of State Dean Rusk denies this means war has escalated.

OBITUARY

Robert Wiley Hill was born September 7, 1882, in Greencastle, now Limesdale, Indiana, the oldest son of William and Nancy Cox Hill, and departed this life December 19, 1965, at the age 83 years 3 months.

From childhood to early manhood, he became well acquainted in this area, and Putnam County.

In September, 1903, he was united in marriage with Ida Margaret Harris, daughter of James P. and Mary Harris of Ladoga, Indiana.

Early in 1960 both he and his wife united with the Limesdale Missionary Baptist Church, where they attended until his health failed.

He worked as a young man with the Monon Railway, O&E Stone Co., and Zinc Mill before he went to the Lone Star Cement Corp., where he worked until his retirement in 1959, after 40 years service.

He was noted for his exceptional skill at his trade of industrial blacksmithing and was affectionately called "George" by his fellow workers.

Robert and Ida were blessed with nine children, Harold, and Raymond, at home, James, Norman, Ernest, Mrs. Wilma Vaughn, and Mrs. Margie Torr of Greencastle, and Paul of Plainfield, and Robert, deceased. In addition to the children, he is survived by his wife, Ida, a brother Leroy of New York, a sister Nellie Woodward of Terre Haute, 13 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, several nephews and nieces, and a host of friends.

Preceded in death by one son, Robert, two brothers Earl and Leo, and one sister Daisy.

When through our tears of sorrow

We see a curtain fall,
And know a dearly-loved one
Has gone beyond our call,
We must have faith and confidence

In God and in His way,
For He will raise the curtain
On a fairer scene some day.

CARD OF THANKS

We are grateful for this opportunity to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone for their help and kindness shown us during the illness and death of our loved one, Robert W. Hill.

We especially wish to thank the staff of the Whitaker Funeral Home, Dr. Dettloff, the nurses and aides of the Putnam County Hospital, the ministers who visited him, the Hanna Street Baptist Church, the First Baptist Church, the Modern Homemakers Club, the Deer Creek Coon Club, the neighbors, friends, and relatives who sent food and flowers, and Rev. Stanley Nicol for the words of comfort. May God bless you all.

TV In Review

By Rick Du Brow

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Is it logical that a television network would greatly improve its programming if it could take shelter within a larger corporate framework, thereby lessening the financial pressures of ratings and Wall Street?

This matter is being discussed considerably lately. NBC, of course, is a subsidiary of the Radio Corp. of America. Now ABC is planning to merge with International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. And knowledgeable industry observers feel that this could mean that CBS might inevitably be forced to make a similar move in order to stay competitive — in short, so that it does not feel the pressure of having more limited resources.

To televisioners, the implications by those who are excited by the beneficial side of such maneuverings are that a massive corporate umbrella might enable a network to schedule higher class programs in greater number. The reasoning is that popularity ratings—which affect network incomes by altering the amount of advertiser charges — and stock market prices, which fluctuate for the networks according to the ratings, would assume lesser importance if ABC and CBS felt more secure because of such corporate umbrellas.

Theoretically, the potential benefit to the viewer sounds lovely. Practically, this viewer feels that those who actually expect such major improvements are living in a utopian dreamworld. No matter how big, secure or excellent the company, its basic motives — like those of all basic business enterprises — are profit and power.

NBC, for instance, has hardly been ordered by RCA to sacrifice all for altruism. The network, for example, has been a major factor in RCA's honorable pioneering and promotion of color television, the parent company being a top manufacturer in the field.

In short, it is simply another case of disappointed but hopeful observers now grabbing, as always, at straws, for video — commercial video — offers little else to grab at. Hoping won't help. As always, commercial television will promise much and offer tiny tidbits, maybe a few added hours of worth, but certainly no major overhaul — in other words, nothing to go wild over. It can be no other way, for once a public treasure — in this case, the airways — has been turned over to commercial powers, the surrender has been consummated. Everything else is mere after-effect.

To change the basic system as it now operates would mean striking at the heart of the profit system, and of course no one wants to do this. Viewers, however, can look forward to the time, hopefully in the near future, when the educational television network hooks up its connections so that it can — like the commercial networks — broadcast a full schedule of programs across the nation, on the same nights, at the same times. This reviewer will welcome the arrival of such a situation so that the commercial network presentation can often be flatly ignored when educational television is superior.

French Expert Publishes
Neyw Book Of Fine Hands

By Alfred Sheinwold
If you still remember about the plume of your tante you can spend a few enjoyable hours reading fine bridge hands in French. Roger Trezel, winner of three world championships and many French national championships, has just brought out a new collection of hands.

Today's hand, borrowed with thanks from Trezel, illustrates the play known as the Double Grand Coup. This is a way of saying that you must deliberately trump your partner's ace twice to make your contract.

West takes his three top diamonds and shifts to the nine of spades. You win in dummy with the ten of spades and lead the ten of hearts for a finesse. When this wins, you lead dummy's other heart to repeat the finesse.

West discards a club, and you see that you cannot capture the king of trumps by normal means. If you lead dummy's high clubs, East will simply discard. You will soon be forced to trump and you will have to lead trumps out of your hand for lack of any other cards to lead. East will bet his king, and you will be down one.

TRUMP COUP
To avoid this you must deliberately waste two or your trumps. Lead a club to dummy's jack and ruff dummy's ace of clubs. Lead the jack of spades to dummy's queen and ruff dummy's king of clubs. (You can't ruff the ace of clubs twice, but ruffing the king is almost as spectacular.)

Now lead the king of spades to dummy's ace, and the stage is set. The lead is in dummy, and all hands are reduced to two cards. East has K-7 of trumps and you have A-Q. No matter what you lead from dummy, East must ruff. You overruff and capture the king of trumps, making your contract and bowing to the mad cheers of the village maidens.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes. You hold: S-9 6 3 H-4 D-A K Q 4 C-9 7 4 3 2. What do you say?
ANSWER: Bid one diamond. Show your strong suit first and support partner's clubs later.

Wirtz Studies Chemical Strike

WASHINGTON UPI — A chemical workers' strike that could imperil the U. S. war effort in Viet Nam has come under the scrutiny of Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz.

The labor secretary intervened Tuesday in the 29-day-old strike at the East Alton, Ill., plant of Olin Mathieson Chemical Co., the major supplier of powder for U. S. small arms.

Negotiators for the striking International Association of Machinists, AFL-CIO, and the company were summoned here Monday for conferences with William E. Simkin, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Dollar Drain

GAINESVILLE, Ga. UPI — Rep. Phil Landrum, D-Ga., after calling for a "strong, sound dollar" in a speech dedicating a new bank building Wednesday, accidentally snipped a $10,000 bill in half while cutting the ceremonial ribbon.

The new, uncirculated bill had been attached to the ribbon as a promotional attraction.

Ski Victim

PITTSBURGH UPI — Ski slopes opened in nearby Boyce Park Wednesday and the first casualty was James J. Ryan, 32 — the park ski director.

Ryan lost four teeth and suffered a fractured jaw when an air hose on a snow-making machine snapped and hit him in the face.

Scholar Dies

NEW YORK UPI — Lynn Thorndike, renowned medieval scholar, died Tuesday at the age of 83 after suffering a stroke Monday at the Columbia University club.

Thorndike was professor emeritus of history at Columbia University, where he taught from 1924 to 1952. He authored two widely used textbooks, "The History of Medieval Europe," and "A Short History of Civilization."

Will Not Run

BOSTON UPI — Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., announced he will not seek another six-year term in the U.S. Senate.

The announcement by the 73-year-old senator opened the field to a handful of Republicans who have indicated interest in succeeding him.

STRONG STARTERS, BUT—
NEW YORK (UPI) — No American League rookie-of-the-year has ever been named the circuit's most valuable player later in his career.

TIGER CUBS WIN HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

HUNTINGTON INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Cubs Roll Over New Haven 87-68; Edge Huntington in Final, 68-62

By FRANK PUCKETT, JR.
Banner Sports Editor

After a long one hundred-forty mile run up north the Greencastle Tiger Cubs' claw grasped deep into the spirit of Indiana's "Hoosier Hysteria" game of basketball by knocking off New Haven's Bulldogs (87-68) in a heated first session of the Huntington Holiday Tournament then came back in the last seconds of the championship game against the Huntington host, 68-62, to bring home their ninth consecutive season victory and a Holiday Tournament championship.

Breezing by foe New Haven in the first tournament session the Tiger Cubs made their victory efforts known to the northern teams when they fired up a last minute rally that out-distanced the tough Huntington Vikings.

With 3:40 showing on the official clock the Cubs led the game by the narrow margin 61-60. Viking 6-2 John PeGan then popped in a twenty footer to give his team the hotly-controversial call on the next play caught the referees disagreeing on the nature of the play and a jump ball resulted. Hunting Mike Troyer snatched the tip from a Viking guard and tossed in a lazy ten footer. Before the host could bring the ball down the hardwood to score again substitute Pete Norris tied Viking Ron Schenkel up at the ten second line. A worried Huntington coach called a quick time-out with the Cubs in command 63-62 at the 2:03 mark.

Huntington took the tip, but the quick handed Norris swiped the ball and fired it to Troyer. The Cubs then put the ball in isolation for one minute and thirty seconds while the Huntington team frantically tried to steal the ball.

Twenty-six seconds remained when the next controversial call brought the crowd to its feet.

with roars of disapproval and one official called Norris for a 3-second violation and one official called a foul call on Huntington's Gary DeHaven. Boos from the Huntington bleachers roared through the gym as the officials awarded a free throw to Norris. The little hot-shot popped in the free throw and the Cubs led 64-62.

Managing possession of the ball on the next play Viking Schenkel slipped and fouled Troyer. Troyer bumped the final buzzer sounded and the Cubs had racked up their first Huntington Holiday Invitational Tournament championship, 68-62.

The championship game wasn't always in favor of the Cubs as the Greencastle crew had to fight their way every inch. Huntington eluded the local squad's press time and time again during the game, often scoring on the Cubs by breaking the press. Huntington led the Cubs by their biggest margin in the second period 22-16, but were unable to maintain the lead more than a minute.

Huntington's Ware, who popped in 14 points and pulled off 7 rebounds in the second quarter, led the Viking scoring with 28 points while his teammate, PeGan tossed in 14 points.

Once again hot-handed Mike Troyer paced the Cubs with 28 points (matched with a 31 point performance in the first game of the tourney) while Chadd and Churchill dumped in 13 and 8 points respectively.

It wasn't an easy route getting to the championship game as the Cubs found out against the New Haven Bulldogs in the first game. Although the Tiger Cubs banged their way to a 50-23 first half lead, the hot Fort Wayne suburbans came back with all they had in the third and fourth periods that made the Greencastle crew aware. But, the Cubs poured it on and secured their tourney berth with a solid 87-68 victory.

Huntington had to get by Auburn in the first session for their championship bid with a 53-41 winning margin. The consolation game between the two first session losers, Auburn and New Haven went easily to New Haven 63-50.

DePauw Tigers Rock Union College, 95-55

SCHENECTADY, New York—Sophomore center Tom McGurk and Morgan Everson collared 38 points between them here last night in the Union College round-robin holiday basketball tourney to lead DePauw University of Indiana to a lopsided 95-55 decision over Union College. DePauw hit at a sizzling 58 per cent clip (35-60).

McGurk scored 23 while Everson pumped in 15 to help spearhead a drive that had the Tigers on top by 25, 46-21, with 2:11 left in the first half.

Michigan Ready For Rose Bowl

EAST LOS ANGELES UPI—Michigan State was to go through its final practice session today before encountering UCLA Saturday in the Pasadena Rose Bowl.

Coach Duffy Daugherty said the Spartans would again work out at East Los Angeles College, dine, and then depart for nearby Sierra Madre and the Franciscan Fathers retreat.

After sending his undefeated national champions through a two-hour workout in the rain Wednesday, Daugherty said the soggy weather did not seem to bother his players.

"Like kids, they seem to enjoy the wet weather," he said. While the Spartans were drilling today, Disneyland was holding a Michigan State Day. The Spartan marching band was featured with the Durand, Mich., High School band.

UCLA In Final Workout Today

LOS ANGELES UPI—UCLA coach Tommy Prothro hoped to move his Bruins outdoors again today for their final workout in preparation for their New Year's Day clash with unbeaten Michigan State.

The Pacific Coast Rose Bowl representatives were forced indoors Wednesday by heavy rains which swept Southern California.

The Bruins were fully attired in grid wear, except for tennis shoes, as they went through an hour and 15-minute drill in the new Pauley Pavilion.

UCLA worked for 45 minutes on offense and a half hour on defense.

Moss led the Indians to an 89-69 mark, good for second place in the eastern division of the league in 1964. Last year the Tribe was managed by George Noga, who led the squad to tie for third place.

Moss Named to Manage Tribe

INDIANAPOLIS UPI—Les Moss was named Wednesday to his second tenure as manager of the Indianapolis Indians of the Pacific Coast League. Moss managed the Tribe during the 1964 season, but last season was chief scout for the Chicago White Sox.

Owen J. Bush, Indians president, said "we are happy to welcome Les Back to Victory Field."

Moss led the Indians to an 89-69 mark, good for second place in the eastern division of the league in 1964. Last year the Tribe was managed by George Noga, who led the squad to tie for third place.

Moss joined the Indians in 1959 as a player-coach under Walker Cooper. Moss recently took over the San Juan team of the Puerto Rican Winter League and has won 14 games in 25 starts.

SPORTS SPUTTERINGS

By Walter L. Johns, Central Press Sports Editor

IN THE 51-YEAR HISTORY of the Rose Bowl game, the big daddy of all the post-season affairs, UCLA has the worst record of any of the West Coast teams—five appearances, five losses.

And, it looks like No. 6 is coming up for the Bruins have to meet the nation's No. 1 team, Michigan State, and the Spartans will be the favorites.

The Bruins lost first to Georgia, back in 1943, by a 9-0 score. Then Illinois walloped them, 45 to 14, in 1947. Seven years later the Bruins met Michigan State and the Spartans came out ahead, 28 to 20. It was Michigan State as the opponent again in 1956 and this time the Spartans got by, 17 to 14. The Bruins' last appearance was in 1962 when the Gophers of Minnesota beat them, 21 to 3.

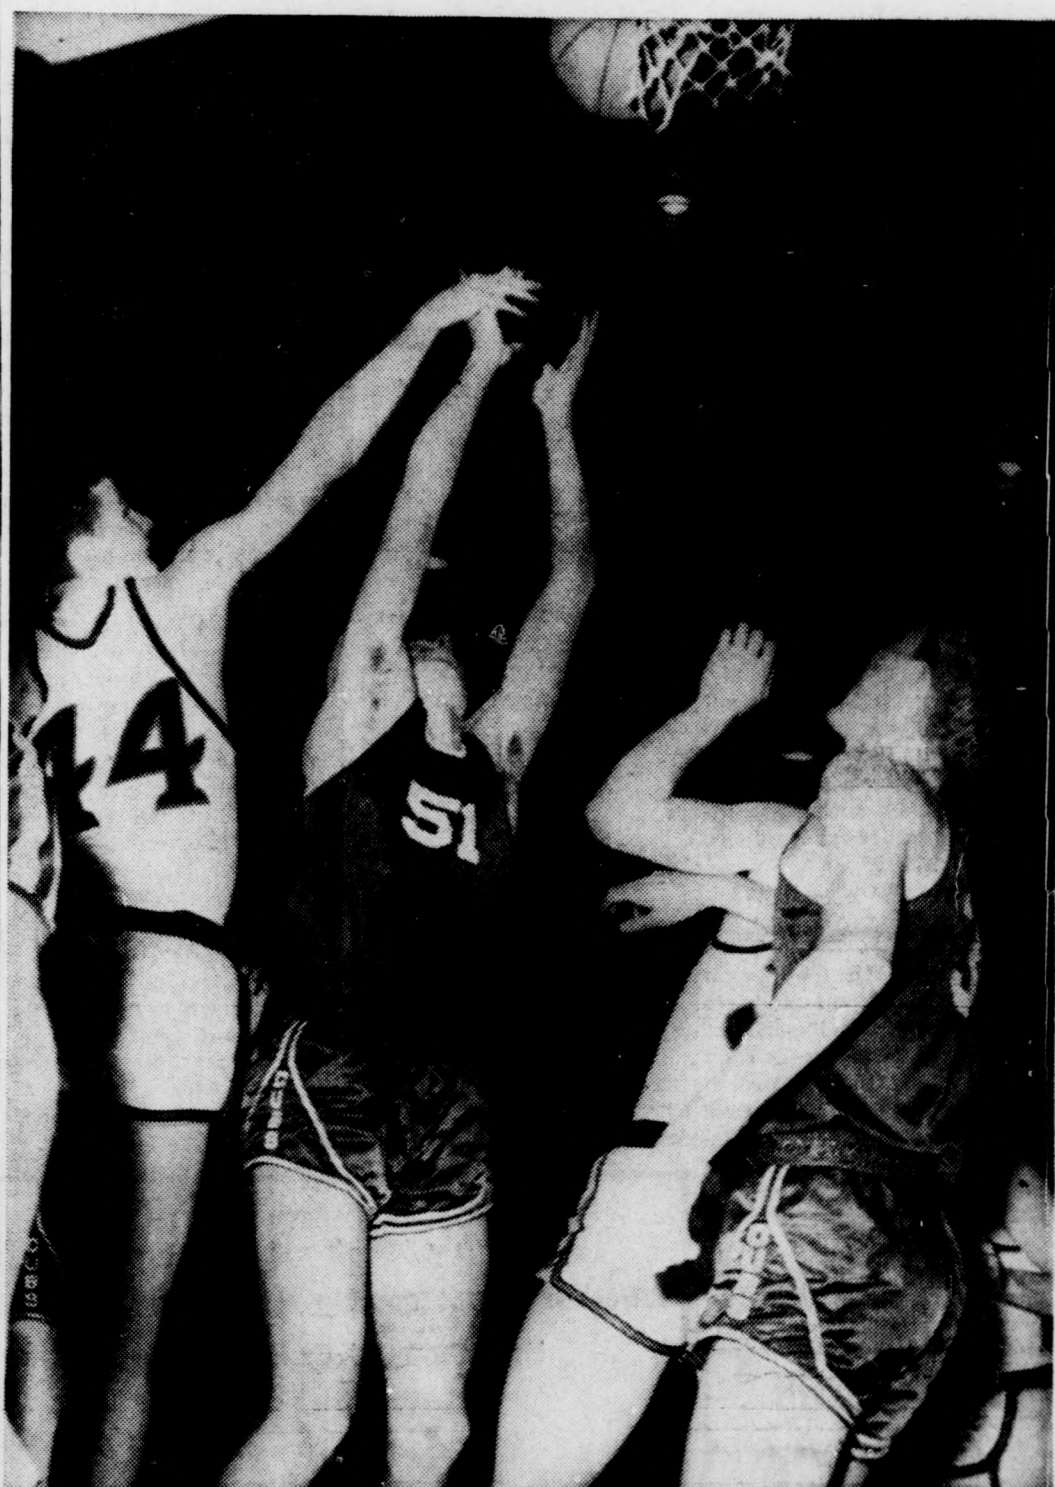

The Bowl game January 1 will be the fourth meeting of Michigan State and UCLA.

And, for the second time in Rose Bowl history, the participants will be clashing for the second time in the same season. The teams met in the season opener at East Lansing, Mich., and Michigan State won it, 13 to 3. The Bruins held the Spartans to only one touchdown (two field goals) and were the only team to hold the undefeated Spartans to one TD score all year as they piled up a 10-0 record.

THE TWO PREVIOUS UCLA-Spartan clashes in the Rose Bowl were thrillers all the way. In 1954 UCLA got off to a 14 to 0 lead and in the fourth quarter the score stood 21-20 in favor of the Spartans when UCLA failed to convert after the third touchdown. The final Michigan State score came in the last five minutes when Billy Wells returned a punt for 62 yards and a touchdown. In 1956 the Bruins again took the lead. Going into the fourth quarter it was 7-7. Clarence Pease passed to John Lewis and the Bruins went ahead, 14 to 7. The Bruins tied it up when Ronnie Knox's pass to Jim Decker set the stage for the West Coast team to score.

The final minutes were as wild as any seen in Rose Bowl games, with five penalties being called. In a thrilling wind-up, with only seven seconds to play, sophomore Dave Kaiser of Michigan State kicked a 41-yard field goal to win the game for the Spartans, 17 to 14. It was the first field goal Kaiser ever made.

IN PREVIOUS Rose Bowl games, the West Coast teams have won 19 games, lost 27 and tied three. (The 1918-19 games were between service teams). The Big Ten standing in the Roses affair is 16 wins, five losses.

COATESVILLE NEWS

by Joe Davidson, Correspondent

The first, real "White Christmas" snow started falling early Monday morning in Chizzle town and by eleven the countryside was white enough to track a rabbit if there were such a critter hereabout. None have been reported to date.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hughes and son of Clayton were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown.

Miss Virginia Brown and Miss Judy Arnold drove to West Lafayette Sunday and attended a Christmas program at the big auditorium of Purdue. Over seven thousand persons were in attendance and the girls report the program one of the best they ever attended. It was profoundly beautiful and inspiring.

Mrs. Belva (Hockett) Cox died at a nursing home in Danville Saturday afternoon. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Hockett who once resided on a farm north of Amo. Mrs. Cox received her grade and high school education in the Amo school. She prepared herself for teaching and taught in Coatesville. Her first marriage was to John Lisby, and after his death she married a retired minister by the name of Cox.

For several years since Mr. Cox's death, Mrs. Cox has been in failing health.

She leaves a brother, Elmer Hockett at Haviland, Kansas.

Services were held for her at the Weaver Funeral Home and burial was Tuesday in the Amo Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Powell are leaving town Wednesday to make their home at the Eventide Nursing Home. They are an aged man and wife who have lived in this community for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Masten left their farm home Monday and from now on will be at the Eventide Nursing Home. Mrs. Masten has been in failing health for several years and has lately suffered a stroke that made it necessary for the move.

The Friday Club had their annual Christmas Meeting in the home of Mrs. Laura Biehl, Dec. 17th, with 16 members present and Mrs. Caroline Murray and daughter as guests.

Devotions in keeping with the Christmas season were given by Mrs. Lela Hunter. She gave the story of the Holy Night, also a poem and closed with a prayer. The program was a story by Mrs. Mable Davidson entitled "An Old, Old Christmas," and was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Davidson gave a very touching tribute in memory of Mrs. Clavia Elrod who recently passed away. She read a poem, "Death is a door in an old wall." Clavia was a very devoted member of the Friday Club for many years.

A report from the Literary Club concerning a possible merger with the Friday Club was read. The subject of the merger was dropped for the present.

The new club program books were reviewed by Mrs. Biehl and passed out to the members. The bill for the expense of the books was allowed.

A very pleasant social hour with an exchange of gifts was enjoyed by all.

Death came to A. D. (Tony) Wilms Tuesday evening at his farm home north of Groveland. He had attended a supper given by his Mason's lodge and later became ill and drove home. Shortly after arriving home he fell and died in a few moments of an attack. He was 66. Services were held at the Weaver Funeral Home in Coatesville and burial was in the Brick Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Gilbert Prichard of near Belle Union was preparing to go see a close friend a few days ago and happened to have a severe fall that fractured her hip. She was taken to the Methodist Hospital where her daughter is a nurse.

The Annual Coatesville Brotherhood Christmas Party was held Thursday evening at the Civic Building. The program got under way at 7:00 and consisted of Christmas songs and some instrumental music. Mr. Bill Biehl was the master of ceremonies. The auditorium was well filled despite the fact that a ballgame was on at Cascade. The many youngsters present were a bit noisy at times but who would expect them to be otherwise around a large Christmas tree? When Santa appeared there was a near stampede of little folks and in a short time a hundred treats had been handed to that many willing takers.

Cascade's Cadets were at home Wednesday night as host to the Brazil Red Devils. The visitors found their host accommodating enough the first half of the game as Brazil scored 13-5 and 15-10 for a half time lead of 28-15. They found the Cadets tougher the third and fourth periods with the stop scores 19-19 and 16-17. Cascade outscored the visitors by one point the last half but the damage had been done at the start of the game. The Red Devils went home the winner, 63-51.

Mrs. Grace Hathaway came home from Madison, Indiana Wednesday and will spend the holidays with family and kinsmen. She will be happy to see old friends.

The Cascade Cadets have played half of their scheduled games and they stand .333 in the percentage column. Three games won and six lost.

Much has been said lately of the school dropout. I wonder if you ever saw a sure enough specimen. Several moons ago I had one in my school for a short stay and I shall try and give a verbal picture of him with as little exaggeration as possible.

His hair was a mop and his neck had gone without clipping until it was hard to tell off-hand if it were a lad's neck you were observing or that of a collier pup. He had glorified sideburns that came far down on his jaw. He donned tight-legged trousers, an oversize coat and never a tie, but often wore a red bandanna handkerchief. His footwear was a high boot with heel plates and a strap and buckle over the instep.

This lad was 15, knew little that was worth while, and cared little. He entered high school and started with four required subjects: English, Latin, Algebra and biology. English to him was a positive bore and Latin a hundred times worse. Algebra was a jumble of letters, numbers and signs that he figured he would never need, so why lug through life some useless baggage. Biology was his "star" subject. Anything that crawled should be killed. Birds came under this edict, for all carried lice and buzzards carried hog cholera. He knew a walnut tree when he could see the walnuts and he knew sassafras for he had dug the roots for tea.

He liked a good "practical" joke such as smashing a new tin cup at a man's pump or going to a country school to cut down the small boys' basketball goals.

He was in high school for three weeks and quit. All teachers to him were sissies and had been reared in "Fuzzy Hollow." The school pupils, those who sat near him, missed him a lot. He had about him two pronounced odors; one of a Kentucky tobacco barn and the other of a load of musty hay.

If there had been in his day such an organization as a Job Corps, Victor would have lifted its morale.

Friday morning's mail brought to me a flower and garden seed catalogue. I felt fifty percent better after receiving it and took a glance at the bright colored flowers, the yellow corn ears and the fat, green cucumbers. I couldn't help but think: "Spring and garden time are just around the corner — maybe."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson and Mr. Henry Harbison of Bloomington, Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Johnson and family of Plainfield were Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davidson.

The Community Kindergarten held its Christmas exercises on Wednesday morning. While the five-year-olds were examining gifts and sampling their treats, their mothers were having coffee and Christmas cookies together. All had a social good time before dismissing for their vacation.

It is gratifying to meet our college and university young people on our streets again and converse with them. One and all reply that their school work is coming along in a satisfactory manner and each student seems more than happy with college life. Several of them have helped out with their church programs.

Methodist members listened Sunday morning to a missionary returned from the Congo, Miss Deal, sister to the local minister. She opened the eyes of several by relating the terrible ordeal missionaries suffered at the hands of black terrorists trained and sent in from Red China. These murderers staged their uprising to drive out white Christians and their gospel of Christ.

Farm Escapee Back In Custody

COLUMBUS UPI—A fugitive from the State Farm was trapped and captured by authorities Tuesday night with the aid of two volunteers.

Ronald Wait, 19, Columbus, was armed with a hunting knife and a straight razor but offered no resistance to Deputy Sheriff Jim McKinney.

Wait, serving 2 to 5 years for a burglary conviction, escaped last October. He admitted stealing a car in the Putnamville area after his escape, breaking into three house trailers in this area and stealing a truck in Louisville.

Both vehicles were recovered. Authorities said he also faces an armed robbery charge in connection with a liquor store holdup in North Vernon.

Wait, who had eluded authorities in thickly-wooded, rugged terrain near here, was captured when two persons agreed to assist officers. They sprung a trap in an automobile, with McKinney hiding on the floor in back.

When they met a police car by pre-arrangement, McKinney pulled his service revolver and made the arrest.

Plant To Close

PLYMOUTH UPI—Officials of the McCord Corp. have announced their local plant employing 160 persons, will be closed in about three months. The firm makes automotive and industrial building cooling coils and was built in 1930. It employed more than 500 persons at the peak production.

Officials said the plant will be sold.

Jobless Claims Up Last Week

INDIANAPOLIS UPI—Claims for unemployment compensation in Indiana rose seven per cent last week from the preceding week because of holiday closings, seasonal cutbacks, temporary layoffs and adverse weather.

Director Lewis F. Nicolini of the Indiana Employment Security Division said the total number of claims rose to 21,138 from 16,698 the week before.

However, the new total was more than 36 per cent below the more than 33,000 claims filed during the Christmas week of 1964.

A labor dispute in a Wisconsin automobile plant resulted in temporary layoffs of more than 1,000 workers in several Hoosier supplier plants, Nicolini said.

Guilty Plea By Singing Star

EL PASO, Tex. UPI—Johnny Cash, the country and western singing star, pleaded guilty to a federal charge of possessing stimulant and depressant drugs. U.S. District Judge D. W. Suttle will sentence him later.

Cash was arrested Oct. 4 as he arrived at El Paso international airport to board a plane. He has been free on $1,500 bond since then.

He could be sentenced to a year in prison and fined as much as $1,000.

Instead of wasting precious water by running it until it's cool enough to drink, keep a water bottle in the refrigerator. And to make sure the container is always fresh, rinse it out every couple of days in a solution of baking soda.

THROUGH THE NATIONAL WINDOW

By Lyle Wilson

War and welfare states are likely to combine to break the taxpayer's back unless the government determines to operate always on the cuff. That would be a likely road to disaster.

President Johnson and his Democratic party are committed to the cuff in contrast to a pay-as-you-go system. That is the easy way for LBJ and company. But it piles up great problems for future generations. They will be compelled someday either to pick up the tab or to adjust to a repudiation of the public debt.

There are wooden headed citizens who will not believe that any such thing could happen. But it could happen right enough. And for all the wooden heads know, it may be happening right now. To repudiate the public debt it is not necessary for Congress or the President to say that debt shall be repudiated.

The way to repudiate a public debt is to inflate the currency until the debt has shrunk little or nothing. The process is so simple any schoolboy would understand it after reading a couple of historical chapters on defeated Germany after World War I. The Germans were charged with war guilt and were required by the Treaty of Versailles to pay enormous reparations to the victorious allies.

Germany proclaimed its inability to pay. The allies demanded their tons of flesh. Germany's internal public debt was a great burden to the postwar German government. There began a currency inflation that reduced the German mark to nothing.

Prewar value of the mark had been about 20 cents. In the early 1920's it was possible to buy hundreds, then thousands and finally millions of marks with one U.S. dollar. Germany's internal debt was paid off in those bogus marks just as the public or internal debt of the United States now can be paid off in depreciated currency.

For example: If you purchased a $1,000 U.S. government bond 25 years ago, the government could retire that bond now by paying you off in 43-cent dollars. Inflation would have depreciated your bond by about 57 per cent.

This is the sophisticated method of repudiating a government debt. It is a process that tends to destroy the middle class of any society. It embraces calamity beyond belief. But it could happen here if thrifless politicians continue to pile debt on debt.

It is a fact of life that the U.S. society, its defenses against internal and external danger, its health and its future can be no better than the value of its money. Depressed, disgraced, depreciated dollars can only underwrite a depression, disgraceful, depreciated American way of life.

President Johnson is preparing a new budget which is expected to attempt to continue a big war in Southeast Asia and a big welfare state program at home. LBJ has forgotten the lesson he should have learned from the man he claims as his teacher—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

When the United States was gearing up for World War II, FDR told a news conference quite frankly that the New Deal was over; that his policy was win-the-war.

The liberal establishment reacted angrily as though stabbed with a hot poker. FDR laughed them off. LBJ seems less ready than was FDR to flout the liberal establishment.

On The Farm Front

WASHINGTON UPI—The Agricultural Research Service has what it hopes is a solution for the crabgrass problem. Smother the crabgrass with a ground cover called "longwood." Longwood actually is "euonymus fortunei longwood." ARS said this ground cover is from the slopes of Mt. Tsubuka in Japan. Longwood makes so dense a cover that crabgrass seeds can't get enough light to germinate.

Longwood can be grown in almost any part of the country, according to ARS, just like crabgrass. Longwood can survive temperatures as low as 25 degrees below zero, and as high as 105 degrees.

Longwood has small dark green leaves and does not pile. ARS said. It is especially good in the shade or in partially shaded areas, or as a cover on low masonry walls.

ARS said the plant was brought to the United States by Agriculture Department plant explorers. It is now being distributed to experiment stations, arboreta, and nurseries.

ARS said Longwood seed should be available to the public in limited supply next fall, and generally by the spring of 1967.

News of Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Take a kid like Gary Lewis, Jerry's son, who cut a smash record his first time out.

You figure the youngster got lucky or maybe his old man gave him a helping hand. If his name had been Gary Muckenthaler, maybe nobody would ever have heard of the kid.

But Muckenthaler... er, ah, Lewis, had gone on to be voted the No. 1 new male vocalist by one prestige recording trade paper and the No. 1 leader of the best new recording group of the year by another.

Moreover, the 20-year-old youth has had three successive hits. His first, "This Diamond Ring," sold some 1 1/2 million copies. Another, "Save Your Heart For Me," notched 8-4 of a million. His first album, "A Session with Gary Lewis and the Playboys," has surpassed 200,000 in sales and is still going.

All this in a year's time, mind you.

Lewis is no collar ad for looks. His voice doesn't scare Sinatra. He lacks sophistication.

Yet Gary is no fluke. He has no gimmicks going for him — long hair, far-out clothes, scuffling sound. His lyrics are clearly understood and the music, essentially rock 'n' roll, has a distinctive sound.

While Gary plays the drums, he's no virtuoso. I mean, Gene Krupa's place in the hall of musical fame will not be usurped.

Neither is Gary a trained musician or performer.

What he does have is an unerring instinct for what teenagers want to hear. He's also a mannerly young man who happily admits his mother, Patti Lewis, manages his career. He lives at home with his parents and brothers and is untainted by the problems of most other offspring of major entertainment personalities.

"When our first record came out I was scared to death," Gary said. "But when it hit big I began to get confidence in myself."

With five singles and three albums behind him in his first year in show business, Gary Lewis is going places. But Muckenthaler? Forget it. The kid just ain't got it.

Soap-Stone Is Discovery Proof

OSLO, Norway UPI — Norwegian experts say they are not trying to soft soap anybody, but a small soap-stone spinning wheel is proof that Lelf Ericson discovered America some 500 years before Italian explorer Christopher Columbus.

On Tuesday, Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Michael Musmanno shot full of holes a Yale University finding that a map in its possession proved the case for Ericson.

Yale said last Columbus Day that the map was authentic because worn holes in it matched up with those of some manuscripts written in 1440.

Musmanno said he checked the holes and they did not match up.

Said the Norwegian experts: "The Italians may like or not, but the archeological finds made by Helge Ingstad in Newfoundland are definite proof that Lelf Ericson and his men really landed in the new world centuries ahead of Columbus."

They said that among remnants found in an old Norse settlement in Newfoundland was a small soap-stone spinning wheel, an exact replica of similar spinning wheels found in Norwegian graves which dated back to the Vikings.

Trial Venued

DANVILLE UPI — The first-degree murder trial of Gary Hurin, 22, Plainfield, has been transferred from Hendricks County to Marion Criminal Court 2 on a change of venue.

Hurin is charged with the Oct. 30 shooting of his father, Harvey, 44, Danville, in the father's trailer home. His mother was wounded in the shooting.

Hurin was recently transferred to the State Reformatory for safe-keeping after an unsuccessful suicide attempt in the Hendricks County Jail.
